JOINT CASE MANAGEMENT
STATEMENT AND REDACTED ORDER

CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE
DATE: July 28, 2008
TIME: 4:00 p.m.

The Honorable Marilyn Hall Patel

1 Pursuant to Civil Local Rules ("Civ. L.R.") 16-9, the parties jointly submit this
2 Case Management Statement and Proposed Order. The parties make the following
3 recommendations and representations:
4

5 1. JURISDICTION AND SERVICE

6 Plaintiff filed her complaint in Alameda County Superior Court. Defendant removed
7 the case based on Plaintiff's Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act claim, 15 U.S.C.
8 §1692 et. seq. There are no issues with respect to jurisdiction and venue; all parties have been
9 served.
10

11 2. DESCRIPTION OF THE CASE:

12 Plaintiff filed this lawsuit contending that Defendant Financial Credit Clearing House
13 – 1956 Incorporated, Inc., dba Butler, Robbins, and White ("FCCH") committed several 14 violations of fair debt collection statutes in its attempt to collect a debt allegedly owed by 15 plaintiff for medical care. Plaintiff alleges the following:
16

- 17 (1) that FCCH's first collection letter to Ms. Ma did not include the disclosure
18 required by Cal Civil Code §1812.700.
19
- 20 (2) that during the entire month of July 2007, FCCH called Ms. Ma and her mother
21 every day even though she told defendant that she was covered under Medi-Cal
22 and that Medi-Cal should be contacted for payment.
- 23 (3) that Defendant threatened Ms. Ma and her mother with a lawsuit and made a threat 24 to take away her mother's home.
- 25 (4) that Defendant made racial remarks to plaintiff's mother, namely that she "should 26 go back to China" because "she doesn't know the law" and continued to make
27 telephone calls with unreasonable frequency to her residence,
28

1 Plaintiff alleges that in so doing defendant FCCH violated the following codes: Cal
2 Civil Code §1812.700; the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, ("FDCPA") 15 U.S.C
3 §§1692e, 1692e(4), 1692e(5), 1692(10), 1692d and 1692f; Cal. Civil Code §§1788.17,
4 1788.10(e), and 1788.11(d) (the "Rosenthal Act"). In addition, plaintiff contends that
5 defendant committed the tort of Invasion of Privacy.

6 Defendant denies all of the material allegations of the complaint, and denies it has
7 violated section 1812.700 of the California Civil Code, the FDCPA, the Rosenthal Act, or that
8 it has invaded her privacy. Defendant has filed an Answer to the complaint which sets forth
9 its affirmative defenses to Plaintiff's claims.

10 11 3. LEGAL ISSUES

12 The principle legal issues include: 1) whether Defendant violated Cal. Civil Code 13 §1812.700; 2) whether Defendant violated the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. §1692 et seq., 3) whether 14 Defendant violated the Rosenthal Act, Cal. Civil Code §1788 et seq.; 4) whether Defendant
15 invaded plaintiff's right to privacy; 5) if Defendant is found to have violated any statute, 16 whether any of its stated affirmative defenses are applicable; 6) what damages, if any, are 17 recoverable by Plaintiff; 7) whether Plaintiff is entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs
18 and, if so, in what amount; and 8) whether Defendant is entitled to recover attorneys' fees and 19 costs and, if so, in what amount.
20

21 22 4. MOTIONS

23 There are no motions pending at this time. Each party reserves the right to move for 24 summary judgment and/or partial summary adjudication.
25

26 5. AMENDMENT OF PLEADINGS:

27 The parties propose an October 1, 2008 deadline for amending pleadings.
28

1 6. EVIDENCE PRESERVATION:

2 Plaintiff's attorneys have already collected and will preserve copies of all documents
3 referred to in the complaint.

4 Defendant has directed its relevant employees to preserve all documents, in paper or
5 electronic form, related to the subject matter of this case.

6
7 7. DISCLOSURES

8 The parties will serve their initial disclosures on July 21, 2008.

9
10 8. DISCOVERY

11 No discovery has been taken. The discovery limits set out by the Federal Rules of 12 Civil Procedure should apply.

13
14 9. CLASS ACTIONS

15 Not applicable.

16
17
18 10. RELATED CASES

19 The parties know of no related cases.

20
21 11. RELIEF

22 Sandra Ma seeks statutory damages of $3,000, actual damages of $25,000 for 23 emotional distress, and punitive damages. She also seeks attorney's fees and costs.

24 Defendants will request that the Court enter judgment for Defendant on all claims.
25 Defendants reserve the right to seek appropriate sanctions, including an award of the costs and 26 attorneys' fees incurred in this action.

1 12. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

2 The parties filed a Stipulation and Proposed Order Selecting an ADR process and the 3 ADR process that the parties jointly requested is: Mediation. The parties intend to mediate at 4 the earliest possible date.
5

6 13. CONSENT TO MAGISTRATE FOR ALL PURPOSES

7 The case was assigned to Judge Marilyn Hall Patel. The parties do not consent to 8 reassignment.
9

10 14. OTHER REFERENCES

11 The parties do not believe that this case is suitable for assignment to binding
12 arbitration, a special master, or the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation.
13

14 15. NARROWING OF ISSUES

15 The parties believe that this case presents relatively simple issues, and that alternative
16 procedures are not necessary to narrow the issues further. However, the parties anticipate that 17 many facts, including but not limited to the authenticity and admissibility of key documents,
18 can be stipulated to in advance of trial and thus conserve the parties' and the court's
19 resources.
20

21 16. EXPEDITED SCHEDULE

22 The parties do not believe that this is the type of case that should be handled on an
23 expedited basis with streamlined procedures.
24
